Tomorrow People Organization is constantly expanding its big international network of friends and partners and therefore is giving you the opportunity to become a part of that network. Feel free to contact the person responsible abogdanovic@tomorrowpeople.org:

If you are looking for an academic/strategic partnership in developing international programs such are: Academic conferences, Study abroad programs, Volunteering Programs and other.

If you have a suggestion on any other form of partnership (fundraiser events and others) between your Organization and the Tomorrow People Organization.
